

VAN ALLEN CASE ARGUMENT OVER HEARING ON NEW SAFE LOOTED IN DECIDED TODAY GRADE CROSSING HARBOR BOARD B. & M. STATION

BOSTON COAL RATE PROTEST

A complaint demanding a reduction in the rates for coal, filed by the Boston Coal and Coke Company, has been received by the Interstate Commerce Commission in New York. The complaint is based on the fact that the rates for coal in Boston are higher than in other cities. The company claims that the rates are unreasonable and that they are being paid by the public. The commission is now considering the complaint.

A Window Display of English Clothes

We point with pardonable pride to our exhibits of these much wanted styles.

The absolutely unexaggerated soft roll lapels—narrow shoulders and distinctive body lines are very pronounced fashion features that give to these garments a decided English accent. Here they are—full tailor-made—as good as the best tailors in the country can make them.

Full details of which are given below. Read each and every item with the greatest care. You skip one it is sure to be the one you want. Easter is three weeks later than last year. One year ago last Saturday night our big 1910 Easter business was all over. Which accounts for our indulging in extreme price-cutting, that we may wind up March with a triumphant bargain sale that will linger and live on in your recollections long after all preceding sales have faded from your memory. We have established an unbroken record of an increase in business every month for 50 MANY MONTHS that we are NOW determined AT ANY SACRIFICE to keep up this pace this month in spite of a late Easter and adverse weather conditions. We shall take no chances, but will sell goods BELOW COST on Wednesday and make this big ONE-DAY SALE superior to any other in Boston's history. From all over Greater Boston we hear the cry, DULL BUSINESS, but, candidly, WE CANNOT COMPLAIN. Prices have been literally shot to pieces, and show how much we value your patronage and how heartily we welcome you to our store. You KNOW you NEED these goods for Easter, and you MUST COME TOMORROW.

RUSTLERS' GAME WITH SENATORS DECLARED OFF CORNELL READY TO PLAY BALL

ITHACA, N. Y., March 28. The last act of the football season at Cornell was made this week, and now the team is ready to start on its Southern trip, which is less than two weeks away.

The last of coaches is now returned to Ithaca, and they will be on the road for the first time. The team is now in the hands of the coaching staff, and the team is now in the hands of the coaching staff, and the team is now in the hands of the coaching staff.

The cut after a pretty fair idea of who will be selected for the team this year. The list of players is now in the hands of the coaching staff, and the team is now in the hands of the coaching staff, and the team is now in the hands of the coaching staff.

Seven Out for Catcher. Seven men are out for the backstop position. They are: Patsy, Abbott, Butler, McCormick, Morris, Hendon, and Smith. McCormick and Abbott are doing the best work and it is a possibility that the outfielders will be the two men who will win the position.

Watch for Janvin. Harold Janvin, a high school boy who is with the Boston Red Sox, will be presented with a game worth to his friends at the game on Saturday, April 13. Janvin is a member of the team, and he is a member of the team, and he is a member of the team.

MELLEN DENIES
DESIGN ON B. & A.

President Charles S. Mellen of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad today denied that the road is trying to purchase or to secure control of the Boston & Albany lines, which are now leased to the New York Central. President Mellen is in Boston, attending a conference of railroad and city officials in his own affairs at the South Terminal.

Four questions were submitted to Pres-

"In the New Haven read trying to secure control of or to purchase the Boston & Albany lines?" President Mellen wrote "No" after the question.

New York yesterday for this purpose?"
"No" was again the answer.
"Is the deal likely to go through? When will the matter be taken up before the Massachusetts Legislature?"
President Mellen lumped his replies to these two questions with these words:

To dine well and at
